Back to School Support to Families in need. Although, we do not host back to school supply drives, each year we provide individual financial help to families in need with uniforms and necessities on a first come first serve basis. Do you know a family in need.? Contact us via our website www.soul-liftedsisters.com.

Well, the year is moving on and it's time to ramp up for the Holiday's. Back by popular demand and we need your help again this year. This special fundraiser helps us be a blessing to many worldwide.
